Not much to say about this weekend more then I played good but lost. Saturday lost first round against Martyn Turner with 6-5 missed about 3 darts to win.

Sunday I draw Ronnie Baxter in first round and if I just had hit those doubles it would have been a great game. But missed in the first 5 legs so I lost with 6-1.

Well well just back on practice board and soon very soon I will take it up one level. Pretty sure about that.

Next stop Haarlem and straight from there to Vegas.
