

29 Mars 2008 Fawltly Open

Written by Administrator

Saturday, 29 March 2008 00:00 - Last Updated Friday, 21 January 2011 13:17

It was time to visit Uppsala and play the tournament Fawltly Open. The event was held at Eklundshof. It started with Mens pairs and I was going to play with a local guy Ove Sweden. We managed to go all the way to the final were I missed a 120 checkout in the final leg for the match. Daniel Larsson didn't miss and he and his double partner Peter Eriksson took the title.

In the singles they started up with pool play and in the first match I played really good but my opponent played even better. I lost against Robert Gustavsson with 1-3. The next two games I won and I was thru to the playoffs. Now I started to play better and better and I was in the final against Daniel Larsson. It was payback time. We both played really good in a tight game but it was my turn to win. I won with 4-2.

Last happening was the mixed pairs which I played with my lovely Ingela. Unfortunately it didn't become a third final, we lost in the semi-final so it was pretty close.