It was time to go down south in Sweden to Malmö and play Malmö Open a Swedish ranking tournament. In the singles I lost against my double partner Dennis Nilsson in the quarter-final. Dennis made it all the way to the final, unfortunately he lost but he played really good.

Sunday and it was time to play mens pairs and it feels so good to play with Dennis, he is so calm and steady and of course a really good dart player. We both played steady and we made it to the semi-final where we had a couple of doubles against us for the match in the fourth leg against Peter Eriksson and Ronny Röhr. But we got a chance and we took it and in the final leg it was no problem, we were in the final. Our opponents in the final were Daniel Larsson and Kenneth Högwall and there is not much to say they played better and they won 1-4. We take them next time.
