This weekend we, me and Ingela, went down to play Hungarian Open. We were there last year and had a wonderful time. Nice weather, nice people and fun tournament. We hoped for the same this year. This year they held the tournament closer to the City so we picked a hotel right between downtown Budapest and the arena where we were going to play darts. It took us about 20 minutes to both places to walk.

Friday night they started out with warm up singles, best of 5 legs. It was about 100 entries. I went all the way to final. I lost 0-3 against Cor Ernst from Holland.

Saturday it was best of 7 legs in the mens single about 300 entries and I started out pretty good. Didn't lose any legs until I was up last 32 and my opponent in that game was Johnny Nijls. We both played OK but I was defeated by 2-4. After that we went out for dinner and the food was excellent.

Sunday and time for pairs. Neither Ingela nor I had any booked partners when we left for Hungarian Open but on Saturday I hooked up with Ari Sissi from Finland and Ingela with Zsuzanna from Hungary. Me and Ari won a couple of rounds but lost against the winner in the pairs. Ingela and Zsuzanna lost against the winners in the first round.

Monday we had the day off just for sightseeing. Hopefully we will be back next year
