Played Grand Prix final in Stockholm today and must say I had a great day. It was the top 16 players after 1 year of playing the ranking tournaments.

The first 2 games I won with a solid performance and found my self being in the semis against Magnus Caris. That game I won with 5-3 and I was in the final. Was a pretty solid performance that game, did some mistakes but when you win you win.

The final was played best of 11 legs. I was playing Daniel Larsson, another Swedish national team player. Don't now what happened but I was 5-0 down, when I decided to concentrate on the game. I did, and I won 6-5. Like I said I had a good day.
