Soon it is time to try the PDC Q-School again.

I was supposed to have one more year of recovery and getting back the fun in darts after all my problems before with operations on my shoulders before trying to get back to PDC. But after a great year 2012 I feel I have to try the Q-school this year already.

I really enjoy playing darts and I can do so without pain now so I just can't wait until it is time to play against all other great players that will participate in Wigan next week.

It will be a tough challenge but with a little bit of faith and believe anything can happened. I will do my very best fro sure to make everybody that believes in me proud. Time to take out the best of The Thunder and of course I am playing with my Cosmo Darts Fit Flights.
